

PRECEPTOR BIO

RICHARD ROONEY, Pharm.D.

Dr. Rooney earned his B.S. in Pharmacy from the University of Nebraska in 1974 and subsequently earned his Pharm.D. from the University of Nebraska in 1984. He completed post graduate Chief Training Program at the Iowa VA Medical Center in 1985. He currently serves as the Director of Pharmacy at the Jesse Brown VA medical Center since 1987. He has served as an adjunct clinical assistant professor with the University of Illinois College of Pharmacy since his arrival to the VA in 1987. Dr. Rooney serves as the Residency Program Director for the PGY-2 Pharmacy Health Administration Residency since 2009. Currently, Dr. Rooney is a retired Lieutenant Colonel. When Dr. Rooney served in the United States Army Reserve he was a certified instructor for students/Majors in Command and General Staff College.

ISABEL SANVANSON KARCESKI, Pharm.D.

Dr. Sanvanson earned her Doctor of Pharmacy degree from the University of Illinois at Chicago in 1999. She began her pharmacy career working at the Great Lakes Naval Hospital (now known as Captain James A. Lovell Federal Health Care Center) as a Clinical Pharmacist and as the coordinator of the ambulatory care rotation for 4th year PharmD candidates attending the University of Illinois School of Pharmacy. She joined Jesse Brown VA Medical Center in 2005 as the Inpatient Pharmacy Supervisor. In March 2008, She was appointed the role of the Assistant Chief for Pharmacy Operations. Dr. Karceski serves as the co-chair of the Root Cause Analysis Medication Event team. She also coordinates the VALOR internship program specializing in Pharmacy Administration along with working actively with both PGY-1 and PGY-2 pharmacy residents in the area of pharmacy management and patient safety.

BRETT GEIGER, Pharm.D.

Dr. Geiger earned his Doctor of Pharmacy degree from the University of Illinois at Chicago in 1997. He completed a one year pharmacy practice residency at the Veterans Affairs Chicago Healthcare System (currently the Jesse Brown VA Medical Center) in 1998. He continues to work at the Jesse Brown VA Medical Center as a clinical pharmacy specialist in primary care and formulary manager. He was named the Assistant Chief of Pharmacy for Clinical Services in June 2011. Dr. Geiger was also a Clinical Assistant Professor at the University of Illinois at Chicago, College of Pharmacy where he worked part-time as a drug information specialist for 12 years.

MILICA JOVIC, Pharm.D., BCACP

Dr. Jovic earned her Pharm.D. from the University of Illinois at Chicago College of Pharmacy. She completed a pharmacy practice residency at the Lakeside VA (currently the Jesse Brown VA Medical Center) in 1996. She continues to work at the Jesse Brown VA Medical Center as a clinical pharmacy specialist in the general medicine clinic at Lakeside CBOC. As well, Dr. Jovic serves as the Residency Program Director for the PGY-1 Pharmacy Residency since 1999 and assists in the coordination of the PGY-2 Pharmacy Administration Residency since 2009. She also coordinates the student rotations from the University of Illinois for over 120 students per year. She also serves as a reviewer for the JBVAMC Continuing Pharmacy Education Committee. Dr. Jovic is also a clinical adjunct professor in the Department of Pharmacy Practice at the University of Illinois College of Pharmacy.

LISA RENE YOUNG, Pharm.D. BCPS ID -AQ

Dr. Young earned her Pharm.D. from the University of Illinois at Chicago College of Pharmacy in 2006. She completed a PGY-1 Pharmacy Practice Residency at Duke University Medical Center in 2007, and a PGY-2 Infectious Diseases Residency at The Ohio State University Medical Center in 2008. Her current role is as the clinical pharmacy specialist for the Home Infusion Program at JBVA, and also has several Infectious Diseases related responsibilities at our institution. She is the residency program director for the PGY-2 Infectious Disease residency program. Dr. Young also precepts P-4 students and PGY-1 residents throughout the year. Dr. Rene is an adjunct clinical instructor for the Department of Pharmacy Practice at the University of Illinois at Chicago College of Pharmacy and a Board Certified Pharmacotherapy Specialist.

ARCHANA JHAWAR, PharmD, BCPP

Dr. Jhavar earned her Pharm.D from Drake University in 2009. She completed her PGY-1 Pharmacy Practice Residency and PGY-2 Psychiatric Pharmacy Practice Residency at Community Health Network Hospitals. She joined Jesse Brown VA in 2012 as the psychiatric clinical pharmacist and is an Assistant Professor of Pharmacy Practice at University of Illinois at Chicago

SINDHU ABRAHAM Pharm.D., BCPS

Dr. Abraham earned her Doctor of Pharmacy degree from the University of Illinois at Chicago College of Pharmacy in 2005. She completed a PGY-1 pharmacy practice residency at the Jesse Brown VA Medical Center in 2006. She continues to work at the Jesse Brown VA Medical Center as a clinical pharmacy specialist in primary care (Red General Medicine Clinic). Dr. Abraham is a Board Certified Pharmacotherapy Specialist and also a clinical adjunct professor in the Department of Pharmacy Practice at the University of Illinois at Chicago, College of Pharmacy.

CHARITY ANICETE Pharm.D. BCPS

Dr. Anicete earned her Doctor of Pharmacy degree from the University of Illinois at Chicago in 2009. She completed a one year pharmacy practice residency at the Jesse Brown VA Medical Center in 2010. She continues to work at the Jesse Brown VA Medical Center as a clinical pharmacy specialist in the Chicago Height's and Auburn Gresham CBOCs and the geriatric clinic at the JBVAMC main campus. Dr. Anicete is also a clinical assistant professor in the Department of Pharmacy Practice at the University of Illinois College Of Pharmacy.

CLARE BERGMAN, Pharm.D., BCPS

Dr. Bergman earned her Doctor of Pharmacy degree from the University of Illinois at Chicago in 2007. She completed a one year pharmacy practice residency at the St. Louis College of Pharmacy in 2008. She currently works at the Jesse Brown VA Medical Center as one of the primary inpatient anticoagulation pharmacists and as the pharmacist for the Chronic Heart Failure Pharmacy Clinic. She is co-chair of the Anti-Thrombosis sub-committee. Dr. Bergman is also a clinical adjunct professor in the Department of Pharmacy Practice at the University of Illinois College of Pharmacy and a Board Certified Pharmacotherapy Specialist.

VIKA BURSUA, Pharm.D., CACP

Dr. Bursua received her Pharm.D. from the University of Illinois at Chicago, College of Pharmacy in 2005. She completed a one year pharmacy practice residency at the Jesse Brown VA Medical Center in 2006. Dr. Bursua went on to work as an inpatient clinical pharmacist at Jesse Brown VA Medical Center. In 2008, Dr. Bursua developed and now continues to manage the inpatient anticoagulation program. She is co-chair of the Anti-Thrombosis sub-committee. Dr. Bursua is also a clinical adjunct professor in the Department of Pharmacy Practice at the University of Illinois, College of Pharmacy.

CHAD BRODY, Pharm.D.

Chad received his BS in Pharmacy from the University at Illinois at Chicago College of Pharmacy in 2006. He then completed his pharmacy practice residency in 2007 at Jesse Brown VA Medical Center. Currently, Chad is the team leader for the discharge pharmacy service at Jesse Brown VA. Dr. Brody is a clinical adjunct professor at the University Of Illinois College Of Pharmacy.

LEE ANN CARSELLO, Pharm.D., BCPS

Dr. Carsello earned her Pharm.D. from the University of Illinois at Chicago College of Pharmacy. She completed a pharmacy practice residency at the Veterans Affairs Chicago Healthcare System (currently the Jesse Brown VA Medical Center) in 1999. She continues to work at the Jesse Brown VA Medical Center as a clinical pharmacy specialist in anticoagulation and primary care. Dr. Carsello serves as Editor of the JBVAMC Pharmacy & Therapeutics Newsletter and as the Continuing Education Administrator for the JBVAMC Continuing Pharmacy Education Committee. She also works for the Veterans Integrated Service Network (VISN) 12, and serves on the VA National Pharmacy Education Advisory Group.

SARAH FLAHERTY, Pharm.D., BCPS

Dr. Flaherty earned her Doctor of Pharmacy degree from Butler University in 2013. She completed her PGY-1 Pharmacy Practice Residency at St. Vincent Indianapolis Hospital in 2014, and completed the PGY-2 Health-System Pharmacy Administration Residency at Jesse Brown VA Medical Center (JBVAMC) in 2015. She continues to work at JBVAMC as the Inpatient Pharmacy Supervisor, and is an active member of several interdisciplinary committees within the medical center.

MOLLY HENEGHAN Pharm.D., BCACP

Dr. Heneghan received her BS in biological sciences from Northern Illinois University in 2001 and her Pharm.D. from the University of Iowa College of Pharmacy in 2005. She completed a one year pharmacy residency in primary care at the Iowa City VA Medical Center in 2006. Currently, Dr. Heneghan is a clinical pharmacy specialist in ambulatory care, specializing in general medicine and smoking cessation. Dr. Heneghan serves as a reviewer for the JBVAMC Continuing Pharmacy Education Committee and is one of the ambulatory care pharmacist representatives on the Anti-Thrombotic Team. Dr Heneghan is also a clinical adjunct professor in the Department of Pharmacy Practice at the University of Illinois College of Pharmacy.

JANINA JANIK, Pharm.D., BCPS

Dr. Janik received her Pharm.D. from the University of Illinois in 2013. She completed a PGY-1 pharmacy practice residency at the Jesse Brown VA Medical Center (JBVAMC) in 2014. Currently, she is a clinical pharmacist in both the inpatient and outpatient pharmacy practice settings at JBVAMC. She is also an adjunct clinical professor at the University of Illinois College of Pharmacy.

TANIA JOHN, Pharm.D., BCACP

Dr. John received her Pharm.D from the University of Rhode Island in 2004. She completed a pharmacy practice residency in 2005 at the Jesse Brown VA Medical Center, Chicago, IL.

Currently, Dr. John is a clinical adjunct professor in the Department of Pharmacy Practice at the University of Illinois, Chicago. She practices as a clinical pharmacy specialist in ambulatory care at the Adam Benjamin Jr. VA clinic, a community based outpatient clinic that is part of Jesse Brown VA Medical Center. She is also a member of the VISN Medication Use Evaluation (MUE) committee and also serves as a reviewer for the JBVAMC Continuing Pharmacy Education Committee.

SEEMA KAPADIA, Pharm.D., BCACP

Dr. Kapadia earned her Pharm.D. from the University of Illinois at Chicago College of Pharmacy in 2008. She completed a PGY-1 pharmacy practice residency at the Jesse Brown VA Medical Center in 2009. Her current role is as a clinical pharmacy specialist in primary care at Jesse Brown (Blue general medicine clinic). Dr. Kapadia received her board certified in ambulatory care in 2011. She is also an adjunct clinical instructor in the Department of Pharmacy Practice at the University of Illinois College of Pharmacy. Dr. Kapadia serves as a reviewer for the JBVAMC Continuing Pharmacy Education Committee and is one of the ambulatory care pharmacist representatives on the Anti-Thrombotic Team.

MARK KNAUB, Pharm.D.

Dr. Knaub received his Pharm.D. from the University of Illinois in 2013. He completed a PGY1 pharmacy practice residency in 2014 at Advocate Lutheran General Hospital, Park Ridge, IL. He completed a PGY2 Infectious Diseases residency in 2015 at the Jesse Brown VA Medical Center, Chicago, IL. Currently, Dr. Knaub practices as a clinical pharmacy specialist in the Hepatitis C clinic at Jesse Brown VA Medical Center.

JOHN PAUL LAFORTE, Pharm.D.

Dr. LaForte received his Pharm.D. from the Ernest Mario College of Pharmacy at Rutgers University in 2008. He was a pharmacist at the Kessler Institute of Rehabilitation, a sub-acute rehabilitation hospital, for 2 years before being hired at Jesse Brown VA Medical Center. Dr. LaForte has been a clinical/staffing pharmacist during day, evening, and midnight shifts and has also spent considerable time training/working with both oral and intravenous chemotherapy. Currently, Dr. LaForte is the IV room pharmacist and manager. As the Inpatient IV Room Manager he is responsible for managing and coordinating comprehensive sterile compounding pharmaceutical care activities in an inpatient care setting within the Jesse Brown VA Medical Center.

LEENA LAFORTE, Pharm.D.

Dr. LaForte earned her Pharm.D. from Rutgers University, Ernest Mario College of Pharmacy in 2008. She completed a PGY-1 pharmacy practice residency at the Jesse Brown VA Medical Center in 2010. Currently, Dr. LaForte is a clinical pharmacist working in primary care (Blue General Medicine clinic and anticoagulation telephone clinic). Dr. LaForte is a clinical adjunct professor in the Department of Pharmacy Practice at the University of Illinois College of Pharmacy.

HONG T. LAM, Pharm.D.

Dr. Lam earned her Pharm.D. from the University of Illinois at Chicago College of Pharmacy in 1998. She then completed a pharmacy practice residency at the Veterans Affairs Chicago Healthcare System (currently the Jesse Brown VA Medical Center) in 1999. She continues to work at the Jesse Brown VA Medical Center as a clinical pharmacy specialist in the genitourinary and gastroenterology clinics. Dr. Lam is also a clinical adjunct professor at the University of Illinois.

ERICA H. LIN, Pharm.D., BCACP

Dr. Hugo earned her Doctor of Pharmacy degree from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill in 2007. She then completed a PGY-1 pharmacy practice residency at the Jesse Brown VA Medical Center in 2008. Her current role is as a clinical pharmacy specialist in the multidisciplinary outpatient pain clinic as well as in primary care. Dr. Hugo is also the co-coordinator of the Pain Education School, which is offered to chronic pain patients year-round. She is a member of the Jesse Brown VA Medical Center Pain Committee and is serving as the facility's Pain Point of Contact for the VISN 12 Pain Committee.

SHERYL LOWERY, Pharm.D., BCPS

Dr. Lowery earned her Doctor of Pharmacy degree from the University of Illinois at Chicago in 2001. Her current role is Clinical Pharmacy Specialist for inpatient care at Jesse Brown VA Medical Center. She is also a part of our Nutrition Support Team, Wound Care Team, and is an Advanced Cardiac Life Support instructor. Dr. Lowery serves as a clinical adjunct professor in the Department of Pharmacy Practice at the University of Illinois College of Pharmacy and regularly precepts pharmacy students as well as Jesse Brown VA Medical Center PGY-1 pharmacy residents. Dr. Lowery is also a Board Certified Pharmacotherapy Specialist.

DUANE E. MACHAJ, RPh.

Mr. Machaj earned his Bachelor of Science degree from the University of Illinois at Chicago College of Pharmacy in 1980. He has been employed at the Jesse Brown VA Medical Center in numerous capacities for the past 37 years. He served as both inpatient and outpatient pharmacy supervisor for a 10 year period. Most recently, he has served as the Pharmacy Informatics Manager for the past 15 years. During this period, Mr Machaj has performed numerous informatics presentations at national VA conferences. He serves on multiple interdisciplinary committee including Medical Records Committee, Information Management Committee, Anti-thrombotic Agents Committee, Pharmacy/Nursing Committee, Bar Code Medication Administration Committee, and ADPAC Council (chair-person).

SIMA MADHIWALA, Pharm.D, BCPS

Dr. Mehta earned her Pharm.D. from the Ernest Mario School of Pharmacy, Rutgers University in New Jersey in 2008. She completed her PGY-1 Pharmacy Practice Residency at Jesse Brown VA Medical Center in 2009. She currently works as an inpatient clinical pharmacy specialist at JBVA, working heavily with the facility's medication reconciliation efforts. She co-chairs the VISN 12 Medication Reconciliation Team, and serves as the facility point of contact. Dr. Mehta is also an adjunct clinical instructor for the Department of Pharmacy Practice at the University of Illinois College of Pharmacy.

MARISSA MAHONEY, Pharm.D., BCPS

Dr. Mahoney earned her Doctor of Pharmacy degree from the Butler University in 2012. She completed a PGY-1 pharmacy practice residency at the Jesse Brown VA Medical Center (JBVAMC) in 2013. Currently, she practices as a clinical pharmacy specialist working in the anticoagulation telephone and hepatitis C clinics. Dr. Mahoney is also a clinical adjunct professor at the University of Illinois College of Pharmacy.

NISHA MEHTA, Pharm.D.

Dr. Mehta earned her Pharm.D. from the University of Michigan College of Pharmacy in 2009. She completed a PGY-1 pharmacy practice residency in 2010 and a PGY-2 health system administration residency in 2011. Both of these residencies were completed at the Jesse Brown VA Medical Center in Chicago. She continues to work at the Jesse Brown VA Medical Center as a clinical pharmacist and pharmaco-economic specialist assisting with outpatient pharmacy and working on various supervisory and leadership projects.

JACLYN NG, Pharm.D., BCACP

Dr. Ng earned her Pharm.D. from the University of Illinois at Chicago College of Pharmacy in 2007. She completed a PGY-1 pharmacy practice residency at the Jesse Brown VA Medical Center in 2008. Her current role is as a clinical pharmacy specialist in ambulatory care. She is involved in the home based primary care service, the pulmonary, general medicine, and smoking cessation clinics. Dr. Ng is also a clinical adjunct professor in the Department of Pharmacy Practice at the University of Illinois College of Pharmacy. She is a member of the Jesse Brown VA Medical Center Fall Prevention Aggregate Team.

MANSI PATEL, Pharm.D., BCPS

Dr. Patel earned her Pharm.D. from the University of Illinois at Chicago College of Pharmacy in 2008. She completed a PGY-1 pharmacy practice residency at the Jesse Brown VA Medical Center in 2009. Her current role is as a clinical pharmacy specialist in primary care (Green General Medicine Clinic). Dr. Patel is also a Board Certified Pharmacotherapy Specialist. Dr. Patel is also a clinical adjunct professor at the University of Illinois College of Pharmacy.

CLAUDIA RAKHMAN, Pharm.D., BCACP

Dr. Rakhman earned her Pharm.D. from the University of Illinois at Chicago College of Pharmacy. She completed a pharmacy practice residency at Rush-Presbyterian Medical Center in 1998. She works at the Jesse Brown VA Medical Center as a clinical pharmacy specialist in the general medicine clinic at Lakeside CBOC and in hemodialysis clinic at JBVA. She serves as a reviewer for the JBVAMC Continuing Pharmacy Education Committee. Dr. Rakhman is also a clinical adjunct professor in the Department of Pharmacy Practice at the University of Illinois College of Pharmacy.

ERICA RICHEY, Pharm.D.

Dr. Richey earned her Doctor of Pharmacy degree from the University of Illinois at Chicago in 2010. She then went on to complete a one year pharmacy practice residency here at the Jesse Brown VA Medical Center in 2011. She currently works at the Jesse Brown VA Medical Center as an inpatient clinical pharmacy specialist. Additional areas of practice include inpatient anticoagulation and medication reconciliation. She also serves on the CLC committee as a pharmacy liaison.

GWENN ROSEN, RPh

Mrs. Rosen earned her Bachelor of Science degree from the University of Illinois at Chicago College of Pharmacy in 1974. She was first employed at Lakeside VA Medical Center as a staff pharmacist, then became the outpatient supervisor and retained that role for 10 years. She then transferred to Jesse Brown VA Medical Center and serves as an outpatient supervisor working with the outpatient staff on staff development. She serves on several multidisciplinary committees and is involved in numerous cost savings initiatives.

SARA SAMUEL, Pharm.D., MBA, BCPS

Dr. Samuel earned her Pharm.D. from the University of Illinois at Chicago College of Pharmacy in 2000. She completed a pharmacy practice residency at the Veterans Affairs Chicago Healthcare System (currently the Jesse Brown VA Medical Center) in 2001. She continues to work at the Jesse Brown VA Medical Center (JBVAMC) as a clinical pharmacy specialist in the Operating Room and Intensive Care Unit. Dr. Samuel is also a clinical adjunct professor in the Department of Pharmacy Practice at the University of Illinois College of Pharmacy and a Board Certified Pharmacotherapy Specialist.

ELIZABETH SAUTER, Pharm.D. BCPS

Dr. Sauter received her Pharm.D. from the University of Michigan in 2010. She completed a pharmacy practice residency in 2011 at the Jesse Brown VA Medical Center, Chicago, IL. She worked as a clinical pharmacist at the University of Chicago Medicine for 3 years after residency prior to returning to the Jesse Brown VA in 2016. Currently, Dr. Sauter is a clinical adjunct professor in the Department of Pharmacy Practice at the University of Illinois, Chicago. She practices as a clinical pharmacist in both the inpatient and outpatient pharmacies at the Jesse Brown VA Medical Center.

NICHOLAS SUPER, Pharm.D.

Dr. Super received his B.A. in biological sciences from The University of Chicago in 2004, then obtained his pharm.D. from The University of Illinois-Chicago in 2009. He completed a pharmacy practice residency in 2010 at the Jesse Brown VA Medical Center. Following his residency, he worked as an inpatient clinician before transitioning to ambulatory care in February 2011. Currently Dr. Super works in primary care, anticoagulation, women's health and home based care clinics, and coordinates the monitoring of post-transplant medications at Jesse Brown VAMC. Dr. Super is also a clinical adjunct professor in the Department of Pharmacy Practice at the University of Illinois College of Pharmacy.

KATIE STEEL, Pharm.D.

Dr. Steel earned her Doctor of Pharmacy degree from Butler University College of Pharmacy and Health Sciences in 2010. She completed a PGY-1 pharmacy practice residency here at the Jesse Brown VA Medical Center in 2011. Her current role is as an inpatient clinical pharmacy specialist. She also serves on the CLC committee as a pharmacy liaison during interdisciplinary rounds.

ANTHONY M. TARDI, Pharm.D., BCACP

Dr. Tardi received his Doctor of Pharmacy degree from Purdue University College of Pharmacy in 2009. He completed his PGY-1 at the Edward Hines, Jr. VA Hospital in 2010. Currently, Dr. Tardi is a clinical pharmacy specialist in ambulatory care with his practice being located at the Adam Benjamin, Jr. (ABJ) Community Based Outpatient Clinic (CBOC) in Crown Point, IN. He was integral in the development of shared medical appointments at ABJ. In addition to his ambulatory care responsibilities, he provides clinical support for the inpatient pharmacy on a weekly basis. Dr. Tardi serves as co-chair for the VISN medication use evaluation (MUE) subcommittee and secretary for the JBVA MUE subcommittee. He is also an active member of the Patient Centered Care (PCC) Steering committee at JBVA. He maintains weekly office hours at JBVA where he enjoys participating in activities such as: cost-savings initiatives, performance improvement work, policy development, longitudinal research, and mentoring, to name a few. He is a clinical assistant professor in the Department of Pharmacy Practice at the UIC College of Pharmacy. Dr. Tardi was named a 2013 Nominee for "External Preceptor of the Year" by the UIC College of Pharmacy. He received his board certification in ambulatory care in 2011 and his certification in geriatric pharmacy in 2015. He is currently working toward an Executive Master of Healthcare Administration degree at UIC.

JUDITH A TOTH, Pharm.D., BCACP, CGP, CDE, FASCP

Dr. Toth earned her Doctor of Pharmacy degree from the University of Illinois at Chicago in 1999. She completed a one year pharmacy practice residency at the Veterans Affairs Chicago Healthcare System (currently the Jesse Brown VA Medical Center) in 2000. Dr. Toth continues to work at the Jesse Brown VA Medical Center (JBVAMC) as a clinical pharmacy specialist in primary care and an adverse drug reaction reporting manager. She also serves on JBVAMC's Medication Event Committee. Dr. Toth's additional responsibilities include co-teaching JBVAMC's diabetes self-management classes as well as participating in JBVAMC's diabetes shared medical appointments. Dr. Toth also serves as faculty for the VISN's Pain Resource Nurse Program. Dr. Toth is a board certified ambulatory care pharmacist (since 2015), a board certified geriatric pharmacist (since 2002) and a board certified diabetes educator (since 2003). She is a Fellow of the American Society of Consultant Pharmacists. Dr. Toth is a contributing author to U.S. Pharmacist and The Diabetes Educator. Dr. Toth is also a Clinical Adjunct Professor, Department of Pharmacy Practice, at the University of Illinois at Chicago, College of Pharmacy.

CAITLIN TURNBULL, Pharm.D., BCPS

Dr. Turnbull received her Pharm.D. degree from the University of Michigan in 2014. She then completed her PGY-1 pharmacy practice residency at the Jesse Brown VA Medical Center in Chicago, IL. Dr. Turnbull is a Clinical Assistant Professor in the Department of Pharmacy Practice at the University of Illinois College of Pharmacy and is currently providing clinical pharmacy services in the Emergency Department at the Jesse Brown VA Medical Center.

ANUJA VALLABH, Pharm.D.

Dr. Vallabh earned her Pharm.D. from the University at Illinois at Chicago College of Pharmacy in 2014. She completed her PGY-1 Pharmacy Practice Residency and PGY-2 Psychiatric Pharmacy Residency at the Clement J. Zablocki VA Medical Center in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. She joined the Jesse Brown VA in 2016 as the outpatient mental health clinical pharmacy specialist where her role involves service creation within the outpatient mental health department, rounding with the residential rehabilitation treatment team, and precepting students, PGY1 residents, and PGY2 residents. She is also involved with leadership activities, such as longitudinal research, quality improvement projects, and active interdisciplinary committee membership.

PATRICK WATERS, Pharm.D. HIV-AAVP

Dr. Waters received his Bachelor of Science in Pharmacy in 1982 and his Doctor of Pharmacy in 1983 both from University of Michigan. His PGY1 residency was at the Ann Arbor VAMC 1983 to 1984 and his PGY2 Residency in Infectious Diseases from Hospital of the University of Pennsylvania. He worked as a clinical coordinator and infectious diseases specialist at Harper hospital from 1985-1987 and then as an Infectious Diseases Specialist at Rush Hospital from 1987- 1990. He was an Infectious Diseases clinical specialist at Lakeside starting in 1990 and transferred to Jesse Brown when Lakeside was closed.

LONYEL WILLIAMS, Pharm.D.

Dr. Williams graduated from University Of Illinois College Of Pharmacy in 1998. She is currently employed at Jesse Brown VA Medical center where she serves as an Inpatient Clinical Pharmacy Specialist. Dr. Williams works on general medicine and surgery floors at JBVAMC. She also serves on the CLC committee as a pharmacy liaison during Interdisciplinary rounds. Dr. Williams is an adjunct Clinical Professor in the Department of Pharmacy Practice at University of Illinois College of Pharmacy.

ANTHONY H. WONG Pharm D.

Dr. Wong earned his Pharm D. from Midwestern University, Chicago College of pharmacy in 2001. He is currently employed at the Jesse Brown VA Medical Center as the outpatient pharmacy supervisor. Prior to Dr. Wong's arrival at the Jesse Brown VA Medical Center in 2007 he obtained eight years of pharmacist retail experience with Walgreens and Target pharmacies.